Supporting learning in the Voluntary and Community Sector

Are you looking for ways to help and support the staff and volunteers in your organisation?

Would you like support to take your organisation a step up in the right direction?

ladder4learning, a Learning Curve project, provides a dedicated helpline and comprehensive website for all your training and development needs. ladder4learning offers impartial, practical advice and information tailored specifically for the Voluntary and Community Sector.

Contact us and you can expect

- A detailed database on current, relevant, local training providers
- Advice on how to choose the right course
- Information on the different methods of learning
- Access to the site so you can upload your course information
- The opportunity to join message boards for networking and information sharing
- Free of charge downloadable tools and resources
- Links to other useful and relevant sites

The ladder4learning project has been specifically devised to develop and evolve to fulfil the complex and changing needs of the sector. We are happy to discuss any needs you feel are not currently being met so we can develop the project accordingly. Please feel free to pick up the phone or drop us an email and tell us what you want from the service and how you want to use the website.
